

WHERE DOES THE BAILOUT FIT INTO YOUR BUSINESS?

This bailout is unprecedented. Unravel the causes and consequences. We'll explore how the current crisis impacts lending and securities regulation and business ethics, as well as how this massive policy change could affect your business.

Join Harvey Pitt (former chair of the SEC) at the University of Dayton School of Law's symposium, "The Fallout from the Bailout: The Impact of the 2008 Bailout on Lending Regulation, Securities Regulation and Business Ethics."

Panel Discussions:

- The 2008 Bailout: Economic Necessity or Government Folly?
- Rethinking Lending Regulation in a Post-Bailout Financial Environment
- Revamping Securities Regulation to Avoid Future Economic Crisis
- Business Ethics and Corporate Responsibility After the 2008 Bailout

Sponsored by Porter Wright Morris & Arthur LLP Program in Law, Religion & Ethics and the University of Dayton School of Law Project for Law & Business Ethics

UNIVERSITY of DAYTON
School of Law

FALLOUT FROM THE BAILOUT

Friday, March 20 / 8:30-4:30 p.m. / $25
Keller Hall / CLE Credit: 6 hours (approval pending)
RSVP by March 13 to Kim Bertke: (937) 229-3325
or bertkeka@notes.udayton.edu