

Porter Wright Information Privacy and Data Security Practice Group Workshop Series

Join us for the final seminar of a three-part workshop on the technical, enforcement, and practical aspects of experiencing and responding to a data security incident.

What Would YOU Do If Your Network is Hacked?

Learn real world legal and practical challenges of a data security incident and how it could result in significant harm to your company.

February 16, 2011

11:30 a.m. - Lunch and Networking

12:00 - 1:30 p.m. Program

Capital Club - 41 South High Street, 7th Floor
Columbus, Ohio

Directions

Focus issues:

State data breach laws
HIPAA/HITECH requirements
When to report a breach
FTC Enforcement
Industry best practices

Featuring:

Robert J. Morgan, Esq., Porter Wright Morris & Arthur LLP

Jeremy A. Logsdon, Esq., Porter Wright Morris & Arthur LLP

Donna M. Ruscitti, Esq., Chair, Porter Wright's Information Privacy and Data Security Practice Group

This is a complimentary seminar, however seating is limited. To reserve your spot at this program, please e-mail Deb Ballard at d Ballard@porterwright.com before February 14.

Donna Ruscitti · Mason Evans · Jack Gravelle · Brian Hall · Dennis Hirsch · Jeremy Logsdon
Bob Morgan · Jim Prior · Justin Root · Ken Rathburn · Grant Stephenson