

Jourdan D. Day

Jourdan is an associate in the firm's Labor and Employment Department, practicing in a wide variety of labor and employment law areas. She has experience defending discrimination and retaliation charges filed with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the Ohio Civil Rights Commission. Jourdan helps clients with compliance matters and best practices in areas including discipline and terminations, Title VII, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA), the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP), the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA), and the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA).

Prior to joining Porter Wright, Jourdan held a fellowship in the Office of Legal Affairs at The Ohio State University where she provided in-house counsel on policies and practices and other matters affecting public sector employers, including collective bargaining, civil service laws and first amendment issues. During law school Jourdan served as a law clerk for the Civil Division of the Columbus City Attorney and held a Judicial Externship for the honorable Judge Robert G. Montgomery for the Franklin County Probate Court.
