

Kyle D. Schrodi

An associate based out of Porter Wright's Dayton office, Kyle focuses his practice on health care, corporate & securities, and mergers & acquisitions, using his broad corporate background to assist clients in achieving their business goals.

Specifically, Kyle counsels hospitals, medical centers, physicians and practice groups on a multitude of complex health care regulatory compliance matters, including the Anti-Kickback Statute, Stark Law, the False Claims Act, HIPAA, EMTALA, do-not-resuscitate orders, medical billing and coding guidelines, and physician contracting issues. Additionally, he helps his health care clients with general business matters involving corporate governance, purchase and sale agreements, business contracts, and personal services arrangements.

Kyle's corporate practice and experience spans across multiple sectors, including manufacturing, professional services and consulting, start-ups, emerging business, community schools, non-profits, performing arts and hospitality. He assists domestic and foreign clients on various transactional matters, including entity formation, corporate governance, sourcing and procurement, nondisclosure and noncompete agreements, mergers & acquisitions, and international trade.

Previously, Kyle was a corporate fellow at a diversified, publicly traded company operating across North America in the grain, ethanol, plant nutrient and rail industries, and also served as a legal intern at the Ohio State Entrepreneurial Business Law Clinic. Kyle has a background in German language and culture, and has studied in Germany and the United Kingdom.

Bar Admissions

Ohio

Honors | Awards

- The Ohio State University Michael E. Moritz College of Law Ernest E. Karam Award

Publications

- "What happens to your online accounts after you die? New Ohio law gives guidance," Dayton Business Journal, July 10, 2017

Associate

kschrodi@porterwright.com 937.449.6707
www.porterwright.com

One South Main Street
Suite 1600
Dayton, OH 45402

SOCIAL MEDIA

Blogs

fedseclaw.com

EDUCATION

The Ohio State University Michael E. Moritz College of Law, J.D., 2014

The Ohio State University, B.S., 2011

LANGUAGES

- German, intermediate

SERVICES

Mergers & Acquisitions

- Due diligence
- Transaction structuring

Business Growth & Operation

- Business succession planning
- Business transactions
- Corporate governance
- Organization, planning and financing
- Venture capital and private equity

Entrepreneurship & Startups

Banking & Finance

- “It’s never too early – Estate planning for millennials,” Dayton Business Journal, April 12, 2017
- “Foreign deal? Make sure you get paid,” Cincinnati Business Courier, March 10, 2017

Community

- Friends of Aullwood, Board Member, 2016-Present
- European American Chamber of Commerce (EACC) – Cincinnati Chapter, Young Professionals Committee, Board Member, 2017-2019
- Columbus Collegiate Academy, Volunteer Academic Mentor, 2011-2012
- Jahnschule Elementary School, Bonn, Germany, Assistant Teacher, 2010

SERVICES (CONTINUED)

Financial Institutions

- Secured lending, negotiable instruments and other Uniform Commercial Code matters

Tax, Estate Planning & Personal Wealth

- Estate and gift planning
- Tax exempt organizations
- Wealth and asset preservation

Real Estate

- Commercial and residential development
- Commercial leasing
- Purchase and sale transactions

Securities

International Business & Trade

- Export control restrictions and compliance
- International trade and customs regulation and compliance
- Sales representation, distribution and licensing agreements