

Megan E. West

senior associate

Megan counsels clients on a wide range of corporate and business matters, including mergers and acquisitions, corporate securities, business development and operation, commercial and retail leasing and wireless telecommunications.

Megan advises public and private companies in structuring, negotiating and drafting mergers, acquisitions, dispositions, joint ventures and other business transactions. Megan also helps public companies manage risk and comply with federal and state securities laws. She advises public companies on corporate governance matters under NYSE, NASDAQ and AMEX listing standards, securities law compliance, 1934 Act reporting and Sarbanes-Oxley compliance. She assists clients in securities offerings and has experienced preparing shelf registration statements, private placement memoranda, securities agreements and other offering materials.

Megan also helps emerging, high-growth companies raise capital by providing advice on entity formation, capital structure and corporate finance, including private equity investment, strategic joint ventures, private placements, shareholder agreements, buy-sell agreements, voting agreements, investor rights and equity compensation. Megan also counsels her clients on consulting arrangements, non-competition, proprietary rights agreements, licensing, customer and vendor contracts, and general corporate law.

As real estate and retail leasing counsel, Megan has experience negotiating and drafting real estate purchase agreements and lease agreements to help clients advance their strategic goals. While at the firm, Megan also worked in house at a Columbus-based public retail company where she assisted in the drafting and negotiation of leases and related agreements for the company's various brands. She also advises wireless telecommunications carriers on contractual matters related to new cell site deployment and wireless technologies around the United States.

Additionally, Megan serves as an adjunct professor for the Transactional Practice course at The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law. In this role, she instructs students on the acquisition process, from the letter of
