

Richard J. Helmreich

partner

Rich counsels clients on business issues including strategic growth initiatives, merger and acquisition opportunities, and corporate finance prospects. He spends significant time serving on several different boards of directors/advisors.

Rich serves as chair of Porter Wright's Employee Benefits Practice Group, where he regularly advises employers on the full range of their employee benefit plan issues.

In the tax-qualified retirement plan area, Rich has assisted employers in the design and implementation of tax-qualified retirement plans of all types, including defined benefit pension plans, profit sharing plans, 401(k) plans, money purchase pension plans, employee stock ownership plans (ESOPs), collectively bargained union plans and 403(b) tax deferred account plans for tax-exempt organizations. Rich has substantial experience with leveraged ESOP transactions.

In the health and welfare plan area, Rich has assisted employers with the implementation of group health, dental, long term disability and group term life insurance benefits, including the design of self-insured medical benefits plans, cafeteria plans, tax-exempt VEBA trusts and third-party administration agreements.

In the nonqualified plan and executive compensation area, Rich has designed comprehensive management incentive programs with stock options, stock appreciation rights, phantom stock and restricted stock. He has prepared nonqualified deferred compensation plans, supplemental executive retirement plans, excess benefit plans and individualized deferred compensation arrangements to provide targeted tax deferred compensation to executive management teams.
