

Garrett R. Marshall

staff attorney

With a focus in e-discovery, Garrett is able to add an effective and efficient approach to a variety of litigation matters. Garrett's background includes managing document review and production from the outside vendor perspective. This experience allows him to advise clients on a wide range of discovery options to fit their unique needs.

“When managed effectively, e-discovery can be an essential part of early case assessment and litigation strategy. Being able to offer technical and legal insight to clients helps me provide significant value at a critical stage.”

During law school, Garrett worked with the Columbus City Attorney's Office in the prosecutor's intake department, where he assisted in determining whether to bring criminal charges. Garrett also served as an extern with Judge Edmund A. Sargus of the Southern District of Ohio.
