

Terry W. Posey, Jr.

partner

Terry has extensive experience handling all aspects of complex commercial litigation. He has a great depth of experience in navigating issues arising from financial services disputes. He is also well versed in advising clients with regard to labor and regulatory disputes, general commercial disputes, trademark and copyright issues, trust and fiduciary litigation, business torts and intellectual property disputes.

While litigation is Terry's main focus, he also counsels clients in a number of transactional contexts. For example, Terry negotiated agreements at all business stages for a fast growing SBA 8(A) Alaskan, tribally-owned government contractor. He has also acted as outside general counsel for a number of small businesses, counseling them on best practices and risk avoidance as they navigate growth strategies.

Terry is certified by the Ohio State Bar Association as a Ohio Appellate Law Specialist. He is only one of 27 statewide and the only attorney in Montgomery County to have earned this distinguished certification. He has litigated before all appellate districts in Ohio and applies a focused approach to each appellate context. Terry is also co-editor of the firm's blog, Ohio Appellate Insights.
