

Sandy S. Shaba

associate

Sandy is a member of the firm's litigation group where she concentrates her practice on all aspects of commercial matters.

Before joining Porter Wright, Sandy expanded her legal knowledge and work experience with several key internships. She served as a summer clerk in the firm's Columbus office, twice, where she researched and analyzed challenging legal issues, wrote memos summarizing case law, made recommendations and presented findings.

In addition, Sandy was a policy intern at the University of Michigan National Forum on Higher Education where she focused on free speech policies of college campuses throughout the United States.

While in law school, Sandy was the staff editor of the Ohio State Law Journal.
