

Nicholas B. Ortiz

associate

As part of the Real Estate practice group, Nick is well versed in advising clients in a variety of commercial real estate matters.

As a summer clerk in the firm's Columbus office for two years, Nick gained a wealth of experience providing support to the litigation, corporate and labor and employment groups. He also served as a senior fellow at the Grassbaugh Veterans Project assisting military veterans with civil litigation matters.

Prior to becoming an attorney, Nick was a paralegal with the U.S. Air Force for nearly a decade, giving him a unique perspective in his current role at Porter Wright. As a paralegal, he provided administrative and litigation support in processing judicial and non-judicial matters. He also assisted attorneys in drafting power of attorney documents, wills, deeds and bills of sale.
