

Amanda S. Keller

senior associate

Amanda Keller is a senior associate in the firm's Litigation and Reinsurance practice groups. She works in the areas of insurance and reinsurance, including insurance coverage and litigation. Amanda litigates complex commercial and business disputes involving trade secrets and restrictive covenants, professional liability defense and third-party insurance coverage.

Amanda also brings experience in the area of third-party insurance coverage and has handled a multitude of coverage and litigation matters. She has served as coverage and advisory counsel for domestic and foreign insurers regarding claims arising across the country. Amanda is actively involved with the Hillsborough County Bar Association Young Lawyers Division, for which she has chaired or served as board liaison to multiple committees, and currently serves as the President-Elect.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Assisted in the litigation and resolution of coverage matters, including matters arising from construction defect claims, third-party liability claims and professional liability claims, in state and federal court.
- Advised foreign and domestic insurers on good faith claims handling practices to minimize bad faith exposure for catastrophic liability claims and to resolve settlement demands where available insurance coverage is limited.
- Analyzed and advised insurers on the interpretation of policy language and rights and obligations of insurers and the insureds under policies of insurance. Assisted in the litigation of complex coverage matters related to coverage disputes on a wide range of policies and issues.
