

KRISTEN DEL SOLE

Co-Partner-in-Charge

PORTER WRIGHT MORRIS & ARTHUR, LLP | PORTERWRIGHT.COM

Kristen Del Sole serves as Co-Partner-in-Charge of Porter Wright's Pittsburgh office. Her reputation as a highly-motivated attorney who thrives on collaboration and client service has made her a leader in the legal community.

For 20 years, Kristen has represented clients that include corporate fiduciaries, nonprofits, and individuals in federal and state courts on probate, estate and trust litigation matters. She also has extensive general litigation experience, including product liability and toxic tort.

"I'm very good at trying to resolve contentious matters — that may also involve a lot of emotion — before they come to a boiling point. While I'm able to do that myself, I'm fortunate also to work alongside a team of highly-talented and accomplished colleagues."

Kristen also gives back to the community as well as to the legal profession. Kristen has served as a board member of Every Child, Inc. Additionally, she has worked with KidsVoice and represented clients in multiple pro bono engagements. She has also served on the Pennsylvania Civil Procedural Rules Committee and the Pennsylvania Orphans' Court Rules Committee.

I'm very good at trying to resolve contentious matters — that may also involve a lot of emotion — before they come to a boiling point.

In 2023, Kristen was named to Women of Influence by the Pittsburgh Business Times. Additionally, she was designated again as one of the 2023 Best Lawyers in America®.

porterwright
INSPIRED LEGAL COUNSEL