

Alexis R. Pannell

Alexis is an associate in the Litigation Department. She is experienced in handling all stages of litigation—from initial case strategy through resolution – for clients of all sizes. Alexis’s practice covers a wide range of subject matters, including fire incidents, real estate disputes, wrongful death litigation, breach of contract, negligence, administrative actions, collections, property disputes and telecommunications.

Alexis spends a significant portion of her practice advising clients on tort liability, helping them evaluate risk and exposure. She is committed to delivering effective legal solutions for complex challenges and ensuring clients navigate litigation with confidence. Alexis also engages with the communities she serves through her pro bono work.

Before joining the firm, Alexis developed her passion for practice through externing with Southern District of Ohio Chief Judge Algenon L. Marbley, Nationwide Insurance and American Honda Motor Company. She also sharpened her efficiency and skills by working as a paralegal with the Columbus, Ohio City Attorney’s Office.
