

Julie L. Langdon

partner

Julie advises clients on patents, copyrights, trademarks and trade secret matters across diverse industries, such as biotech, pharmaceuticals, software and consumer products.

Her practice of intellectual property litigation includes copyright, trademark, patent, trade dress infringement and trade secret misappropriation. She helps clients protect their IP through strategic planning, securing patents and trademarks, and enforcing rights both in and out of the court. Julie represents clients in all stages of patent litigation, including injunctions, discovery and appeals, with experience in district courts across the U.S. Federal Circuit and proceedings before the International Trade Commission.

Julie is a registered patent attorney and has extensive experience before the USPTO and international bodies, as well as inter partes review, ex parte reexamination, third-party submission, trademark letters of protest and trademark cancellation and opposition proceedings. Julie also has a substantial UDRP practice.
