

Khadaijia S. Brooks

associate

Khadaijia is an associate in the Litigation Department. She gained valuable legal experience as a summer associate at Porter Wright in both litigation and transactional matters

Prior to joining the firm, Khadaijia served as a judicial extern for The Honorable Caroline H. Gentry of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio. In that role she conducted legal research, drafted memoranda, and proposed orders, reports and recommendations on federal civil and criminal matters. She also assisted with case management and observed hearings and motion proceedings to support the court's adjudicative process.

While in law school, Khadaijia distinguished herself through leadership, academic service, and practical legal experience. She served as Executive President of the Student Bar Association, Vice President and Sergeant-at-Arms of the Black Law Students Association, Parliamentarian of the Academic Senate, and a member of the Academic Affairs Committee. She also served as the head student representative for Themis Bar Review and gained hands-on legal experience through the Civil Law Clinic and the Ohio Governor's Expedited Pardon Project.
